

Dysodia oculatana*, a window-winged moth larva wraps in leaf cup leaf, Polymnia canadensis, & feeds

© MJ Hatfield

Covel states: Food: beans & Eupatorium ageratooides, white snakeroot; larva bores into stems & is also a leaf roller. Uncommon in much of its range.